OPERATIONAL MATTERS AND COMMENTS:

1. Mecheslava MYKITA: RUDKO picked up some rumors that MYKITA had left Munich suddenly in late August 1958 and when he checked the local police presidium to confirm this he learned she was de-registered in Munich and is now living with relatives in Hamburg, Bendixenweg. [] offered no objection when RUDKO suggested that he contact the UUAAC representative in Hamburg to check if MYKITA is in Hamburg or if she has departed with Hryhoriy DRABAT to England, as rumors have it.

2. Michael MARTENS: RUDKO said he was planning to visit an emigre at the Haar sanatorium who has requested UUAAC assistance and by the same token will visit MARTENS who RUDKO heard is recuperating following an attempt to commit suicide. RUDKO said he would phone [] would he learn anything which may be of interest to the AIS.

3. Mykhaylo PROTSAYLO (PROTSAYLO): During RUDKO's last trip to Camp Valka he learned that PROTSAYLO was given recognition by Valka authorities and is now living at the AFRF House, Flammerscheid, Witshelden bei Solingen. RUDKO is unaware of PROTSAYLO's activities but offered to do further checking. (NOTE: A letter intercepted to BANDERA headquarters in Munich from PROTSAYLO indicates he is now living at Solingen, Kottendorfer strasse 61.) Volodymyr KOZAK, PROTSAYLO's bosom buddy, is still at Camp Valka; RUDKO was unable to learn the reason why KOZAK also did not receive recognition from the FEDREP.

4. New Ukrainian Escapees: RUDKO reported his office was notified regarding the following recent escapees from the East:

a. Viktor WENSIERSKI (last known address: Reim, Kreis Moers, Dongrathshof 29): the UUAAC learned about WENSIERSKI during August 1958 when the latter applied via mail for assistance. RUDKO wrote to him in early September 1958 but the letter returned on 22 September 1958, stating that no forwarding address was available. RUDKO since learned that WENSIERSKI appeared at Radio Liberation in early September 1958 for employment, stating he was living in Austria. RUDKO said WENSIERSKI, probably a false name, is a Ukrainian and fled from Poland to the FEDREP.

b. Josef KWIATKOWSKI (last known address: Berlin-Dahlem, Koenigen Luisenstrasse 13): KWIATKOWSKI recently applied for UUAAC assistance, stating he is a Ukrainian (and not Polish, as the name indicates). RUDKO has no further information as yet.

c. RUDKO learned the UUAAC received other requests from the Stuttgart and Valka areas but they have not yet come to his personal attention. He indicated that Dr. PEREHINYTS is in the USA for conferences with UUAAC heads and RUDKO is substituting as local chief in PEREHINYTS' absence.

5. Rev. Paladiy DUBYTSKIY: RUDKO noted that recently DUBYTSKIY, who appears to have searched for and found RUDKO's confidence, betrayed the fact that something is bothering him to the point of inducing depression.

When DUBYTSKYI was treated by RUDKO to a round of drinks, he rambled about the misfortunes in his life, etc., including the fact that he was concerned that he left a wife and child in the Ukraine and remarried in the FEDREP. However, RUDKO felt that DUBYTSKYI was alluding to something possibly far worse than this personal situation and wanted to "talk" to someone about it. RUDKO said he would take DUBYTSKYI out again and attempt to elicit further information. (DUBYTSKYI is a local UUAOC office employee.) (NOTE: DUBYTSKYI, according to [redacted] was the latter's classmate in theology school in the 1930s in the Ukraine. AEGAPLIN/1 reported on 23 September 1958 that DUBYTSKYI was receiving and forwarding [redacted] mail.)

6. The following are MB traces on the individuals mentioned in paragraphs 4 a and b, above:

a. [redacted] AISW requested traces on 5 May 1958 on one Wiktor WINSIERSKI, born 3 December 1927 in Sanurki, POW Kartusy, Poland, a shipwelder and mechanic living in Marienfelde refugee camp in West Berlin. (Carded information only.)

b. Josef KWIATKOWSKI is an alias used by one Boleslaw KIBEN (aka Stanislaw GUZIK aka Georg TRINKLEIN), born 30 January 1928 in Miana Laka, Poland, who was dropped on 25 April 1955 because he had been arrested in the SovZone while on an assigned mission. (EQQA-62271, 10 May 1955, USAREUR Dropped Agents List.)

c. Another Josef KWIATKOWSKI, born 22 October 1919 in Stryssow, Poland, residing in Krakow, applied for a visa to visit the Fedrep recently. (EQQA-98896, 27 May 1958.)
